Journey to Japan

by T. Geo. Wood.

RAMBLINGS IN JAPAN

As this is being written the Honor Guard band and review are passing by. It is a lovely spring day, and the cherry trees and other blossoms are beginning to show color and bloom in all directions. Whenever the weather is good, the people swarm out to the public parks and everywhere is crowded. Sunday afternoon there were 60,000 at the zoo in Ueno Park, not including us, but there seemed just as many in Meiji Park and Shimjiku Gardens, which we drove through.

The small industries of Tokyo are fascinating. We have done a lot of walking in and through the narrower side streets. Here is where the people live and work.

In one morning I casually stopped and studied these hand crafts. Rice, one of the great staples, is delivered to a neighborhood mill still covered with bran. Here a very small polishing machine takes off the brown covering and polishes each grain, which is then packaged — or weighed for retail consumption.

Next door was a bean curd factory. Two women in work kimono, covered with white work aprons, and with wooden clogs, geta, seemed to be doing all the work. First the yellow soy beans are steeped and fermented then ground into moist flour which is pressed into grayish cakes and cooled in water, while in wooden frames. The next step seems to be to fry these cakes in deep fat for consumption.

At the retail fish stores, both large and small fish are sliced, cleaned, beheaded, and cut into steaks and fillets, all by hand, and most expertly by the fish man. The marketing is done mainly by the women, who buy very small portions, and generally carry a small bouquet of flowers and have a small baby straddling on behind.

Another shop of interest was one manufacturing Japanese wooden bath tubs. These look like the old fashioned apple barrels, almost, only more oval in shape. One cannot recline in such a bath. At one end, fenced off by wood slats, is the heater. In the city gas — but in the country, charcoal heats the water. The people, who sit naturally on their heels, heat the water nearly red hot, and then squat, with hot water to their necks. In the country these daily soaks come at the end of the work day, before the last meal. They are taken in strict precedence, first Papa San then his sons, and after, the women.

The workmen building these bath vats use the native saws, which cut as they are pulled toward you, then they shave and trim the wood and bind it with copper wires to make it water tight.

These saws come in various shapes. One man was trimming or splitting a heavy tree trunk. He used a saw shaped like a huge hatchet, about 15 inches across. To saw, he squatted on the ground, pulling down the blade with each stroke.

Most of these shops and stores are at the street level, and with sliding doors at the back where the family lives. The door opens into other rooms and the children casually come in and out all the day.

One day we decided to see Kabuki. This is the so-called modern play — only about 600 years old. The older form of Japanese drama is called Noh, and is played only behind masks. In Kabuki, the actors do not wear masks, but appear behind such a chalk white make-up, tinted with red and pinks, and with dark lines to indicate whether they are heroes or villains, they might as well wear masks.

To see Kabuki, you must be at the theatre by 10:30. The first performance starts at 11 a.m. and lasts till 4:30 p.m., but there are many (Continued on page two)

Mrs. Edith Smith was hostess at a Stanley Tea on Monday evening. Twelve ladies were present, including Mrs. Moscovitch of Lethbridge, who was the demonstrator. A tasty lunch was enjoyed.

Little Marilyn Dahl celebrated her third birthday Wednesday afternoon at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Brent Jensen. Fourteen of her little friends and their mothers were present. Her grandmother, Mrs. Emma Dahl, made a big birthday cake and her mother, Mrs. Gordon Dahl, served a very tasty lunch.

Salt Lake Team Says Raymond Players Too Rough

The Raymond Rangers hockey team arrived home on Tuesday after a successful but hazardous trip to Salt Lake City. They enjoyed their trip down in fine weather and Friday evening played their game in their shirtsleeves, but Saturday it snowed actually mountains of snow and they had to stay over a couple of extra days until the roads were passable.

They won their game 5-4 against the Salt Lake Team, who thought our boys and style of play a little too rough for them. Those going down were: Raymond (Duke) Helgeson, Jerry (Butter) Bartosek, Steve Bartosek, Bud Brown, Lloyd Jensen, Bob Brown, Gordon (Dooley) Robinson and Rudey Audinart all of Raymond; Jr. Johnson of Magrath and Johnny Burrs, Leo Herald, Doug Herald, Roy Ellis, Doug Simpson, Alan Brown and Knobby Disearne, all of Lethbridge.

One of the players on the Salt Lake City team was Ray Adams, a former Raymond resident, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lem Adams.

The wives of the players accompanied them and report a good time was had by all.

Musical Festival To Benefit Band, Hospital

The Raymond Music Club presented a most interesting musical recital recently when students of Mesdames Emma Dahl, Maybelle Anderson, Fern Thompson, Madge Fairbanks, Katherine Keeler and Dora Oler all took part in the program. The proceeds from this event will be divided between the Raymond High School Band and the Municipal Hospital.

Mrs. Mary McMahon's Blazer Primary boys entertained their mothers in the Second Ward Primary Tuesday. Each boy took part on the program and all played games, after which Mrs. McMahon served lunch.

Mrs. Barbara McPhee and girls, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Irene Redd, were week end visitors in Grassy Lake at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Terry and Mr. and Mrs. Smellie Redd.

South Resident Passes After Many Years Illness

The death occurred in the local hospital on April 4th of Frank Bartosek, aged 65. He had been in failing health for several years.

Frank Bartosek was born in Czechoslovakia and immigrated with his wife and family about 30 years ago. He was predeceased by his wife ten years ago.

Funeral services were held in the Sacred Heart Catholic Church Wednesday at 10 a.m., with Rev. Father Marien officiating. Interment was in the Temple Hill Cemetery and Christensen Bros. were funeral directors.

He and his wife raised a family of nine children, four sons, Joe of Edmonton, Frank Jerry and Steve of Raymond, and five daughters, Mrs. Mary Chudik who lives in Europe, Mrs. Stella Chmielewski of Taber, Betty Bralszewski of Bellevue, Mrs. Annie Dorey of Vancouver and Mrs. Jennie Turner of Raymond. He also left 16 grandchildren.

All of his children except Mrs. Chudik and Mrs. Dorey were present for the final services.

Ralph Walker Delegate To Liberal Council

Ralph Walker, who is Vice - President of the Liberal Association in Alberta and also Vice - President of the Young Liberals of Alberta, has just returned from a ten-day trip to Ottawa where he attended the Liberal National Advisory Council held there at the Chateau Laurier. He was one of 20 Liberal delegates from Alberta who, with delegates from each of the other provinces, report a most enjoyable and informative time.

The council meetings were concerned with policy making and discussion as to what should be put into practice and what the members would like to see made effective for the country's benefit.

Couple To Live In Edmonton After Honeymoon

SINCLAIR — TERRY

The Legion Memorial Hall was tastefully decorated with pastel colored streamers and bouquets of spring flowers on Saturday, April 2nd, when marriage vows were exchanged between Mona Ruth, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Terry, and Donald Gordon Sinclair, youngest son of the late Dr. and Mrs. R. D. Sinclair of Edmonton.

Bishop Emerson Blumell of the Magrath 2nd Ward officiated at the double ring ceremony in the presence of relatives and close friends.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, entered the hall to the strains of the traditional wedding march played by Mrs. Dora Oler, and was lovely in a ballerina length gown of white chantilly lace fashioned in a full flared skirt and fitted bodice with a lace bolero jacket. Her skirt length veil of lace bordered illusion net, cascaded from a pearl studded tiara, and she carried a bouquet of deep red roses and white carnations tied with long white satin streamers.

Miss Camille Larsen in a mauve ballerina length gown of satin and nylon net was the maid of honor, while Vera Terry, in a yellow net- over taffeta gown, was her sister's bridesmaid. Each carried bouquets of pink and white carnations tied with green ribbons.

Little Anne and Diane Terry, in matching floor length gowns of blue taffeta, were charming flower girls for their sister. They carried nosegays of pink carnations with matching ribbons.

Bob Alexander of Edmonton was best man and John Thompson was usher.

The beautiful three-tiered wedding cake centering the brides linen covered table, was flanked by tall white tapers in crystal candle holders.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony and the brides parents, together with the groom's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sinclair of Calgary, and his sister, Mrs. Isabelle Sangster of Vancouver, B.C., joined the wedding party in the receiving line.

Alberta's Pioneers

For their contribution to Alberta's Fifty Golden Years, all pioneers who were in the Province at the time of its establishment in 1905 or before, will be presented with Senior Citizen Scrolls, upon application. Crests on the delicately engraved border of the scroll will depict history motifs of the province, and the script will identify the recipient as a Senior Citizen. The name will be hand written on each scroll by an artist.

Who May Apply:

All persons who have been in residence in the province since the year 1905 or prior, may apply for a Senior Citizen Scroll. A short period of absence does not disqualify you.

How To Apply:

Application must be made for scrolls. Forms are now available at Municipal Offices in each district or from the Jubilee Committee. Completed application forms are to be sent to the committee (address below).

CLOSING DATE FOR APPLICATIONS-August 1st, 1955

To enable the Jubilee Committee to prepare and distribute the scrolls, your co-operation is requested. Completed applications must be received by August 1, in order that distribution may begin by August 22.

Distribution of Scrolls

The majority of scrolls will be mailed from the Jubilee office to the applicant but communities wishing to be responsible for distribution at special presentation ceremonies, even prior to August 22, are requested to prepare a list of eligible citizens and ensure that application forms are submitted well in advance of the date scrolls are required.

Senior Citizen's Day

A Senior Citizen's Day has been added to the agenda of official dates for the Jubilee Year. September 10th has been set, though communities throughout the province will be holding special Senior Citizen Scroll presentations to coincide with their own Jubilee activities.

JOURNEY TO JAPAN

intermissions and one long lunch period. The second show runs from 5 till midnight.

We went to Meiji Za Theatre. A good seat costs 660 Yen, about $2.00. I think we were the only spectators not Japanese. The theatre was well filled. All the lobbies were lined with stalls selling foods and souvenirs, paintings of the actors, and a restaurant, feeding over 100 people at a sitting.

All the parts, male and female, were taken by men, and the high squeaky voices of the females (?) were done to perfection. We saw two plays — Kagamiyama, a story of a court lady who was humiliated by a wicked rival, who beat her with a slipper. She then committed suicide to save her honor. Then the faithful maid, who revenged herself on the evil one and slipped her to death.

This was all performed in ceremonial court costumes, which outshadown anything in our western world.

Although we of course did not understand the language, it was possible to follow the story through by the acting itself.

Most of the performers enter the stage from the rear of the theatre on a raised platform — Habichu — so you have an intimate view of them, with a preview of their characters, as they enter or retire.

The staging is elaborate and beautiful with much shifting of scenery by men dressed in black, who, theoretically, are thus invisible. When the scene changes from indoors to outdoors the whole stage revolves, and all the side sets are pushed into place to fit the new scenery.

All the action is emphasized by an invisible chorus of Japanese musicians, some playing Koto, others Samisen, and many singing, with wood percussion men, who sit on the corner of the stage. You can always tell that something exciting is about to happen by the musical emphasis, which, of course, to us sounded a lot like howling and yowling, but it was all very effective.

Two Japanese young men, University students, come to the apartment for English lessons once a week, and one of them brought a composition on Kabuki.

He wrote that not many Japanese knew a good deal about it, for reasons; geographical — not being in the big cities and financial — the cost being too high, but the actors are descendants of the families who performed 300 years ago and they take the names of their ancestors when they have proved worthy. Therefore, Kabuki is part of the art of Japan.

Next week we hope to tell of cherry blossom time. Just now, we should like a trip to Vancouver, to see our new grandson, Conrad Woodruff Wood, who arrived there on March 26th.

Now Sayonara.

RALPH WALKER

The delegates heard such well-known and able speakers as Prime Minister St. Laurent, Hon. Lester B. Pearson, Minister of External Affairs, Hon. Rob't. Winters, Minister of Public Works, Hon. Paul Martin, Minister of Public Health, Hon. James Gardner, Minister of Agriculture and others.

Ralph also attended a dinner party for some of the guests at the home of Hon. Geo. Prudham, Minister of Mines and Technical Surveys.

He had a very interesting interview with Hon. C. D. Howe, Minister of Trade and Commerce as well as with several senators.

He was a luncheon guest of Hon. Solon E. Low, National Social Credit Leader.

An executive meeting of the Young Liberals Association was one of the highlights of his trip to the Capital.

Snow five feet deep was quite a contrast to his visit there a year ago when it was warm and sunny with early flowers in bloom.

The trip was made by train and Ralph reports that in spite of the cold weather it was interesting and beneficial to all the Liberal Party's representatives.

Rita Powelson celebrated her 13th birthday Wednesday after school with a party for her friends. Six girls and half a dozen boys enjoyed a couple of games of softball as well as the lunch served by her mother, Mrs. Bert Powelson.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hirsche and sons of Fort Macleod and Mr. and Mrs. Wit Hague of Picture Butte were Sunday visitors at the home of the ladies' mother, Mrs. Agnes Atwood.

BORN — In Camrose, to Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hills, (nee Lucille Larson) on April 1st, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Neuman and family of New Dayton, were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kesler.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Miller and Mrs. Gertrude Webster and daughter Linda, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Jensen and family.

Mrs. Emma Dahl was a Great Falls visitor recently.

Your Government

A weekly report on the happenings in the Provincial Legislature, specially written by Donald F. Smith.

The effects and ramifications of the events which occurred with machine gun rapidly in the Alberta legislature last week probably will not be known for some months.

As a result of evidence submitted to the house public accounts committee, two by-elections will be called within six months, unless a general provincial election is in the offing.

The committee sat at the request of Liberal members, who charged waste and extravagance in connection with land and building transactions in Edmonton and Calgary. Evidence submitted to the committee showed that two members, John Charles Landeryou of Lethbridge, and Roy S. Lee, Taber constituency, are part owners of a building being rented by the government.

Under the Legislative Assembly Act, persons holding such contracts with the government are ineligible to hold membership in the legislature.

The two members, who said they did not realize this and had not been informed of any irregularities by their solicitors when the building was assigned to a holding company in trust for Mr. Landeryou and Mr. Lee and William McNab of Lethbridge, submitted their resignations to Mr. Speaker on Thursday afternoon and vacated their seats.

The committee was to meet this week to prepare the report it will submit to the legislature in the evidence received in the 12 hours it sat on three different days hearing witnesses. On one day the committee which actually is composed of all members of the legislature, sat for 6 1/2 hours.

Mr. Landeryou, a former Social Credit member of Parliament for Calgary East, has been a legislative member since 1944, while Mr. Lee has been in the legislature since 1940.

They said they had never talked of their interest in the building to members of the government prior to acquiring it or after.

Immediately after the resignation, Premier Manning read to the house a written statement, in which he said the government did not know, until the committee heard the evidence, that the two members held an interest in the building as private citizens and not as members of a company.

The committee was told the building, which is in Edmonton and was purchased by the government in 1948 for $75,000, was sold to George Hobeck, president of Canada West Insurance Co. for $64,000 last year. It also was stated that Mr. Hobeck, finding himself in financial difficulties, assigned the building over to the holding company which held it in trust for the two members and the third party. Mr. Landeryou and Mr. Lee are managing director and director respectively, of Canada West.

Both members say they will contest the by-elections which will be called. The government has been renting the building pending the completion of a new highways building in Edmonton.

In connection with the other transactions, Arthur Arnold, deputy minister of public works, defended the government's actions. One involved the purchase of a large building on Edmonton's main street for $225,000 only a short while after it had been bought for $175,000. The committee was told renovations and improvements to the building have cost about $500,000.

The deputy minister said it is now a "million-dollar building." It was also brought out that a site for a government liquor store was purchased in Calgary for $46,000 while in the same block a chain store bought the same amount of land for $36,750, including three houses, one of which was sold for $3,000 to be moved.

Witnesses called by the opposition stated that the amounts spent by the government for jail sites in the Calgary area were too high, while witnesses called by the government defended the action. One of the witnesses, a salty real estate man 44 years in the business, in answering questions on farm land values, contended: "The only guy trying to bring them down is the politician trying to get into power."
